Promoting Texas Youth in Agriculture

The San Antonio Corral Club is a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting Texas youth in agriculture. We raise money during the year through various fundraising events and use those proceeds to purchase lambs and other livestock at the Junior Livestock Auction held during the San Antonio Livestock Show and Rodeo in February. The youth who raise and show livestock at the San Antonio Junior Livestock Auction are some of the most hardworking and well deserving kids in our state.

Our organization helps to maintain a floor price during these auctions. This guarantees that no child goes home without being justly rewarded for their efforts. By the support of organizations, such as yours, it is possible for the San Antonio Corral Club to have a successful drive to promote Texas youth in agriculture.

At the end of July, we will be holding our fall fundraiser. For the eighth year in a row, we will be partnering with the Triple R Rodeo to bring you the Ring of Fire Ranch Rodeo and Concert at the Kendall County Fairgrounds in Boerne, Texas. Additionally, we will be hosting the 2nd Annual Katch 'Em for Kids Team Roping event at the Cibolo Livery Stables in Bulverde, Texas.

The notoriety of Ranch Rodeos is growing. The San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo is now featuring a new event on the final day of the Rodeo called the South Texas Ranch Rodeo Finals. This event represents the top six teams from Ranch Rodeo competitions all over Texas. We are proud to say that Boerne's top team is an automatic qualifier into this event.

On Friday, July 31st, the Corral Club would like to invite you to participate in our private Casino and Calcutta Party, where our Ranch Rodeo competitors will be auctioned off to the highest bidder. With silent and live auctions, casino tables, heavy hors d'oeuvres and live entertainment by Granger Smith, Friday promises to be an exciting evening (must be 21 and over to enter).

On Saturday evening, August 1st, our Ranch Rodeo teams will compete for cash prizes and awards, earning points towards their South Texas Ranch Rodeo Finals' standings. Events will include wild cow milking, shovel races, and wild horse saddling, just to name a few. Of course, due to the popular demand, the human dot races will be back again this year. Following the Ranch Rodeo events, we will round out the evening with a concert. Ross Cooper will open our evening concert, followed by our headliner Charlie Robison.

Also featured on Saturday during the day, is our annual team roping event. Over 150 roping teams will compete for saddles, buckles, breast collars, cash and bragging rights. Books open at 9 a.m. and the roping starts at 10 a.m. For more information, please contact Jimmy Spruill at (210) 859-0059 or email us at teamroping@sacorrclub.org.

The success of our event is entirely dependent upon sponsorships. In addition to being greatly appreciated, part of all donations is tax deductible. The sponsorship levels for both the rodeo and team roping events are attached. We feel that we can meet your expectations as a Corral Club sponsor in a variety of ways; therefore, all packages and opportunities are subject to negotiation. We hope we can count on your support for such a worthwhile cause and look forward to your participation.

If you are unable to find a package or level that meets your needs and would prefer to make a monetary contribution, please make your check payable to the Corral Club and send it to:

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
